School Board Official Reveals New Schools Planned For City

By Mary Smith

Four new schools will be built in Greenbelt, but not in the immediate future, an official of the Prince Georges County Board of Education told the North End School PTA Tuesday.

Thomas Gwynn, Assistant Superintendent for Supporting Programs, said, "The present capacity of Greenbelt schools is adequate for next year."

As the need arises, Gwynn said, these new schools will be built: a senior high school on the present land fill on Northway extended, a junior high school near Boxwood on Crescent Rd., an elementary school in Springhill Lake, and another elementary school on Greenbelt Rd. near the Charlestown development.

Gwynn said that Prince Georges County is proud of its record of school construction — only one school in the whole county is on double sessions — and the astonishing sum of $118,000,000 has been spent on school buildings and supplies (desks, books, etc.) since 1948. Six hundred people move into the county every week and this means that classrooms have to be provided for ten thousand new school children yearly.

The county now has 156 schools with a capacity of 4,000 classrooms; new construction averages one new classroom a day throughout the year, and by next September 15 new schools will have been built.

In areas where construction falls behind need, the county has 165 portable classrooms (some of which are now in use at High Point high school) which can be used to relieve overcrowding until new additions or schools can be built.

Lakeside Ass'n Meets

The annual membership meeting of the Lakeside Association will be held Tuesday, March 17, at the Greenbelt Firehouse. All members are urged to attend. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. with a number of items on the agenda of vital interest to the membership.

New residents of Lakeside, including those who have moved into the development on Lakeside extended, are cordially invited to participate in all of the activities of the Association and to attend the meeting on March 17. In the absence of the president, Leo Davis, who is ill, Cy Turner, 47 Lakeside, will preside.

Ambulance Club Goal $5000

The annual Ambulance Club drive is now in full swing according to Capt. George Clinedinst of the Greenbelt Volunteer Rescue Squad. The Club hopes to raise some $5000 in contributions during its month of May campaign.

Members of the Rescue Squad, calling on Greenbelters, are asking for a minimum contribution of $3.65 — a penny a day.

City Notes

A reminder to Greenbelt citizens — the City offices have moved into the new municipal building, 25 Crescent rd., and have new telephone numbers. (Available in the telephone directory).

City Manager James K. Giese reports that a temporary sign "telling what the building is" has been placed at the popular entrance to the new building — permanent signs at both doors are yet to come.

The four parking spaces at the rear of the building are reserved — two for visitors and two for squad cars.

Better Library Buildings Requested in County Survey

Maryland's public libraries need bigger book collections and larger, more adequate buildings according to a survey taken among 7,000 book borrowers last month.

The people said they believed good public library service was as important to a community as were good schools and fire and police protection. Many said their choice of a place to live was influenced by whether or not good library service was available. Others living in rapidly developing suburban areas without adequate library service gave it highest priority among community needs.

Still others said the public library is a chief strength of democracy since it makes available to all people regardless of education, economic, or cultural backgrounds a wealth of knowledge.

The survey, directed by the Maryland Library Association Committee on Publicity, sampled opinions of people in 28 units of seven county libraries and Baltimore City during one week in January through use of a questionnaire distributed to all adults (senior high school and above) who used the libraries. These counties were included: Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Caroline, Kent, Montgomery, Prince George's, and St. Mary's. With Baltimore City they represent 78 per cent of the state population.

While the survey made no attempt to relate to population data, it did attempt to get a cross section of opinions from the people who happened to enter the 28 units in seven counties and Baltimore City during the week of the survey. Questionnaires were given out by library staff members.

Nearly 7,000 out of approximately 7,300 questionnaires distributed were completed, according to Miss Elizabeth B. Hage, president of the Maryland Library Association.

Included among the typical comments released by the library was a statement from Mrs. C. D. Kendall, 7 Greentree Place, who said: "The library in Greenbelt is housed in one room of the school building. It is not spacious enough to allow for reading rooms."

The survey findings are summarized in a booklet, "The People Speak for Public Libraries in Maryland," printed by the Maryland Library Association.

Recreation Review

by Richard Stevenson

In the championship playoffs for League supremacy, the Marylanders took both games from the Tobacco Shop. With the league crown goes the right to represent the city in the 2nd Annual Greenbelt Invitational Basketball Tournament.

The first game was the most exciting of the season. The Tobacco Shop led through the first three periods only to lose 67-65 in the last few minutes. Coach Ernie Black, although closely guarded by Hank Burbridge, scored 16 points in the Shoppers' valiant try to upset the Marylanders. Sandy Young, with 22 points, and Ted Comden with 20, led the Marylanders.

The second game was anti-climatic as the Marylanders topped the Tobacco Shop 73-55. Black led the Shoppers with 17 points and Young had 31 for the Marylanders.

Ballet Registration

Ballet registration for the second session of eight weeks will be held from 10 a.m. until 12 noon at the Youth Center. Class and time assignments will be made during the next week.

Things To Come

Did anyone ever tell you to, "Go fly a kite" Well, kids, here's your chance to do it. On Thursday, Mar. 26, there will be a "Go Fly Your Kite Contest" at Braden Field. Flyers will be sent to the schools with more information.

We've just received word from the Easter Bunny that he plans to leave Easter Eggs at Braden Field. He says Pre-Schoolers and Elementary School children may look for them Monday, Mar. 30. Mr. Bunny promised to write again next week.

300 City Acres Across Parkway Recommended For Apartment Zoning

The Prince Georges County planning board recommended to the county commissioners at its March 4 meeting that approval be granted for rezoning the area east of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway in accordance with the Staff Study Plan of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission.

The Staff Study Plan was prepared to deal with 38 applications pending for the rezoning of 633 acres in the area between the Parkway and Goddard Space Flight Center. About 300 acres of this is within Greenbelt city boundaries.

According to the modifications recommended by the staff in the pending petitions, of the 300 acres, 3.53 acres will be for high-rise apartments, 20 acres for R-10 zoning (multiple-family, high-density apartments), and 209 acres for R-18 zoning (multiple-family, low-density apartments). Some additional acreage may be converted to high rise apartments later.

Before making its decision, the county planning board heard a statement prepared by Mayor Edgar L. Smith of Greenbelt, protesting the large addition of multiple-family housing. Smith forecast that if the Staff Study Plan is adopted, Greenbelt's future population will exceed 40,000. This will be larger than the 1960 population of any city in Maryland, except Baltimore. More than 80 percent of Greenbelt's population will be living in rental apartments, he said.

Protest by Smith

Smith pointed out that the staff plan ignores Greenbelt's city limits. The services provided, regulations ordained, and taxes charged will vary between that portion of this area within the city and that portion without. The staff plan, the Mayor added, projects a population for the area within the city in excess of the city's existing population but makes no provision for any city facilities to serve this area.

New Budget May Raise County Tax By 48 cents

Residents of Prince Georges County, including Greenbelters, may face a county real estate tax increase of 48 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, if the spending requests of the county government for fiscal 1964-65 are approved by the county commissioners. The present tax rate is $2.64 per $100.

According to the report in the Evening Star, a record budget of $82.9 million has been proposed — some $14.5 million over last year's $68.4 million operating budget. As in the past, the school request of $49 million accounted for almost 60 percent of the 1964-65 total budget proposal. The school budget itself was up $9 million from that of last year. Five hundred new teachers are being asked.

Officials predict the assessable tax base will be $1,260,000,000, up some $110 million from last year. The budget would have to be cut $6 million to maintain the current tax rate.

The board of commissioners will hold public hearings March 24 in the Upper Marlboro Courthouse and March 26 in the Hyattsville Municipal Building on the proposed budget.

PTA To Hear Proposed County School Budget

The proposed operating budget for the 1964-1965 school year will be presented by the Superintendent of Schools, William S. Schmidt, and the staff of the Board of Education at a meeting of the Prince Georges County Council of Parent-Teacher Association at 8 p.m. Monday, March 16, at Bladensburg Junior High School.

This will be the first public presentation of the proposed school budget prior to the public hearings that will be set by the Board of County Commissioners.

The operating budget for the current school year, 1963-1964, totals $40,988,383 and was based on an estimated pupil enrollment increase of 8,000. The enrollment in September 1962 was 81,931; the enrollment in September 1963 was 90,044. The enrollment as of January 1964 totaled 90,586.

The proposed operating budget for the 1964-1965 school year is based on an estimated pupil enrollment of 100,000.

High Point To Receive 7 Exchange Students

The International Club, in cooperation with the History Club of High Point High School, is sponsoring a program featuring seven exchange students from the American Field Service who are presently attending school in the metropolitan area.

The students, representing Norway, England, Italy, Turkey, India, Australia, and Japan, will be at High Point on April 9, 1964, for the entire school day.

After following a schedule similar to that of the students at High Point in the morning, they will be treated to lunch in the cafeteria with the students, after which their programs will be presented. There will be two programs presented, one from 1:30 to 2:30, and one from 2:30 to 3:30. After school hours, there will be a reception for them.

Men's Fast-Pitch Softball

The Prince Georges County Men's Softball League has openings for teams in the fast-pitch league. Further information may be had by calling the Recreation Department, 277-8696 week days, or Chester Coakley at 627-2216 after 6 p.m.

OVERLOOKED

To the Editor:

Often times in politics there appears the hard working public servant who actually does the leg work, and the brain work which leads to the great accomplishments, but is forgotten when the laurels are awarded. Such a man is Ed Conroy, Attorney at Law. Few people realize that it was Ed Conroy who researched the law and arrived at the conclusion that citizen intervention was possible in the Jaeger high rise case. However, the large metropolitan papers overlooked Mr. Conroy's splendid work. We hope that the Greenbelt News Review will print this letter so that Mr. Conroy will get the recognition he deserves and stand beside Francis White, Gladys Spellman and Jim Fritz as those who fought and won the protest against high rise invasion of Greenbelt.

For a cooler you this summer and a cleaner kitchen all year long

CHOOSE A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC RANGE NOW!

Can't stand the heat in your kitchen during summer cooking? Better switch to "Flameless" right now. Electric range units make direct contact with pots and pans. Result—they cook the food, not the cook. Electric ovens keep their heat inside because they're insulated on all four sides, plus top and bottom.

But the summer season's just one reason. Flameless means clean all year long—no soot or smoke to smudge pots, or cling to walls and curtains. Surface units clean themselves; so do some ovens.

How about performance? Electric cooking heat is even and precise. Ovens are fully automatic. Not only can they cook for you in your absence, but they do much of their roasting and baking on stored heat, with the current off. Many models even have automatic surface units. And electric cooking is economical—costs as little as $2 a month for a family of four.

Get the range that cooks rings around the rest at your "Live Better Electrically" dealer or department store now.

Visit the Electric Institute display, 1st floor, PEPCO Building, 10th and E Streets, N.W., and see 45 different models in these basic styles:
